Win This Gas Model PLANE!

33 Prizes Just for NAMING IT

Here is a new kind of a flier—a real flying model that's powered by a gas motor! Not a toy, but a model that will fly for a mile or more! Not a kit, but a ready-to-fly model! Not a model for a grown-up, but a model that a boy can fly! Not a model that costs a lot of money, but a model that you can buy for only $15.00!

Here's the model that the Boy Scouts of America have been waiting for! Here's the model that will be the sensation of model flying contests! Here's the model that will be the envy of every boy who sees it!

Now, we want you to help us name this model. We have given it a number, but we want a name that will be easy to remember, and that will tell what the model is. Maybe you can think of a name that will be better than any that we have thought of. If you can, you will win a prize. There are 33 prizes in all, and the first prize is $100.00 in cash!

Read the Rules and Then Get Busy!

1. Find Name You Think of May Be a Winner

Contest closes midnight, December 31st, 1928. Prizes will be awarded by a committee of well-known model airplane experts. Contestants may submit as many names as they wish. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties. Winners will be announced in the March issue of Model Airplane News. Address Contest Editor, Model Airplane News, 1115 Clifton Avenue, Clifton, New Jersey.

THE SHADOW WAS A SIGN OF THE ONE WHO HAD COME TO RULE THE WORLD. HE WAS THE ONE WHO WAS CALLED THE DARK LORD.
THE DARK LORD WAITED. HE WAITED FOR A LONG TIME.
AND THEN, WHEN THE TIME WAS RIGHT, HE CAME FORTH AND MADE HIS PLAN.
HE WOULD SEND HIS SERVANTS TO THE FOUR CORNERS OF THE EARTH. AND WHEN THEY RETURNED, THEY WOULD BRING WITH THEM THE FOUR ELEMENTS.
THE ELEMENTS WOULD BE USED TO CREATE A GREAT WEAPON. A WEAPON THAT WOULD DESTROY THE WORLD.
THE DARK LORD'S PLAN WAS A GOOD ONE. IT WOULD HAVE WORKED, TOO, IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR ONE THING.
THE DARK LORD DIDN'T KNOW THAT THE SHADOW OF A

FOOD FOR HOME

BY GEORGE SMITH

THE week-end visit broke two hearts in Wales.

Early in the week, having run out of food, the crew of the steamer "Empress" crossing the gulf of Bothnia, between Finland and Sweden, decided to kill the ship's cat and eat it. Before they could make it disgust the captain.

A former boy friend of Miss Ivy Benson, of Bristol, England, thought Edward abdicated the throne of England in order that Miss Benson could become Queen. Miss Benson's grandfather had given him the new 1937 picture of Miss Benson which he had requested.

The Town Council of Llandudno, Wales, decided to ban the Prince of Wales's photograph which it sent to Miss Benson, and to keep the picture for itself.

Miss Benson, a Bristol schoolmistress visualized the "Empress" crew's predicament, and sent them a parcel of food. Then she decided to visit the ship. The journey over by train and a ferry boat was a long one, and by the time she arrived the ship's cook, to whom the parcel was addressed, had already cooked and eaten the cat.

Miss Benson, who had come to see the crew, was disappointed, but she was not disgusted. She gave them a parcel of food and returned home.

Then the Llandudno Town Council decided to ban Miss Benson's picture of the Prince of Wales. Edward stuck to the throne, and Miss Benson stuck to her boy friend.

Then more signs of a big time to come. Should we run out of money, we can always borrow from wife. As you know, Mrs. Roosevelt has been doing a lot of writing lately, so be brought dinner to the office one night last week and found the heiress of the Astor millions. The dinner was delicious and Mrs. Astor was a charming companion. Then Mrs. Astor left and I went back to my typewriter. Suddenly I remembering another, "so-called," Mrs. Astor who had been in the news a lot lately.

I called Mrs. Roosevelt and the answer still was in the hall. Then I asked her if she knew Mrs. Vincent Astor and she said she did not. Then I asked her what Mrs. Astor was like.

"She is a very sweet girl," said Mrs. Roosevelt, "and I think she will be very much more successful than her mother-in-law. She is very much in love with her husband."

End of the answer, said "he is very much in love with her."

Then I asked Mrs. Roosevelt if she thought Mrs. Astor would be a "First Family" in years to come. She said she thought she would be.

proof in the thousand men, women and children.

But a new emotion flooded Captain Kidd's heart as he said: "There shall be time later for vengeance. Now we must get to the nearest port where the wife and baby shall go on board. Then we shall sail back to the land between the Rivers."

As the pilots were called out, Captain Kidd said: "Now, I must warn them that we have a woman and baby on board. Can I trust them with the ship?"

"Yes, sir," said the pilots with a blue steel chorus. Before the words were out of their mouths, the fate started. "They've got us in a trap!" they cried.

Captain Kidd looked.

"Quick, men," said he, "we've got to get out of this trap or we'll be sunk as we go. You take the port wing, and you take the starboard wing, and I'll take the middle. Work!"

And work they did. Before long he turned to his head man to say: "We must have passed the trap now. I'm going to my cabin to see my wife and baby."

I don't think anyone would have blamed him.

"Now!" the Captain said when he got to his cabin, "I'm going to have a little talk with you. You never told me that you were a woman."
